

This week are looking at a story from WWII about a young German girl called Rose.

Day 1 – Read the story and summarise the storyline in less than 100 words.

Day 2 – Describe how the town changed through the course of the story.

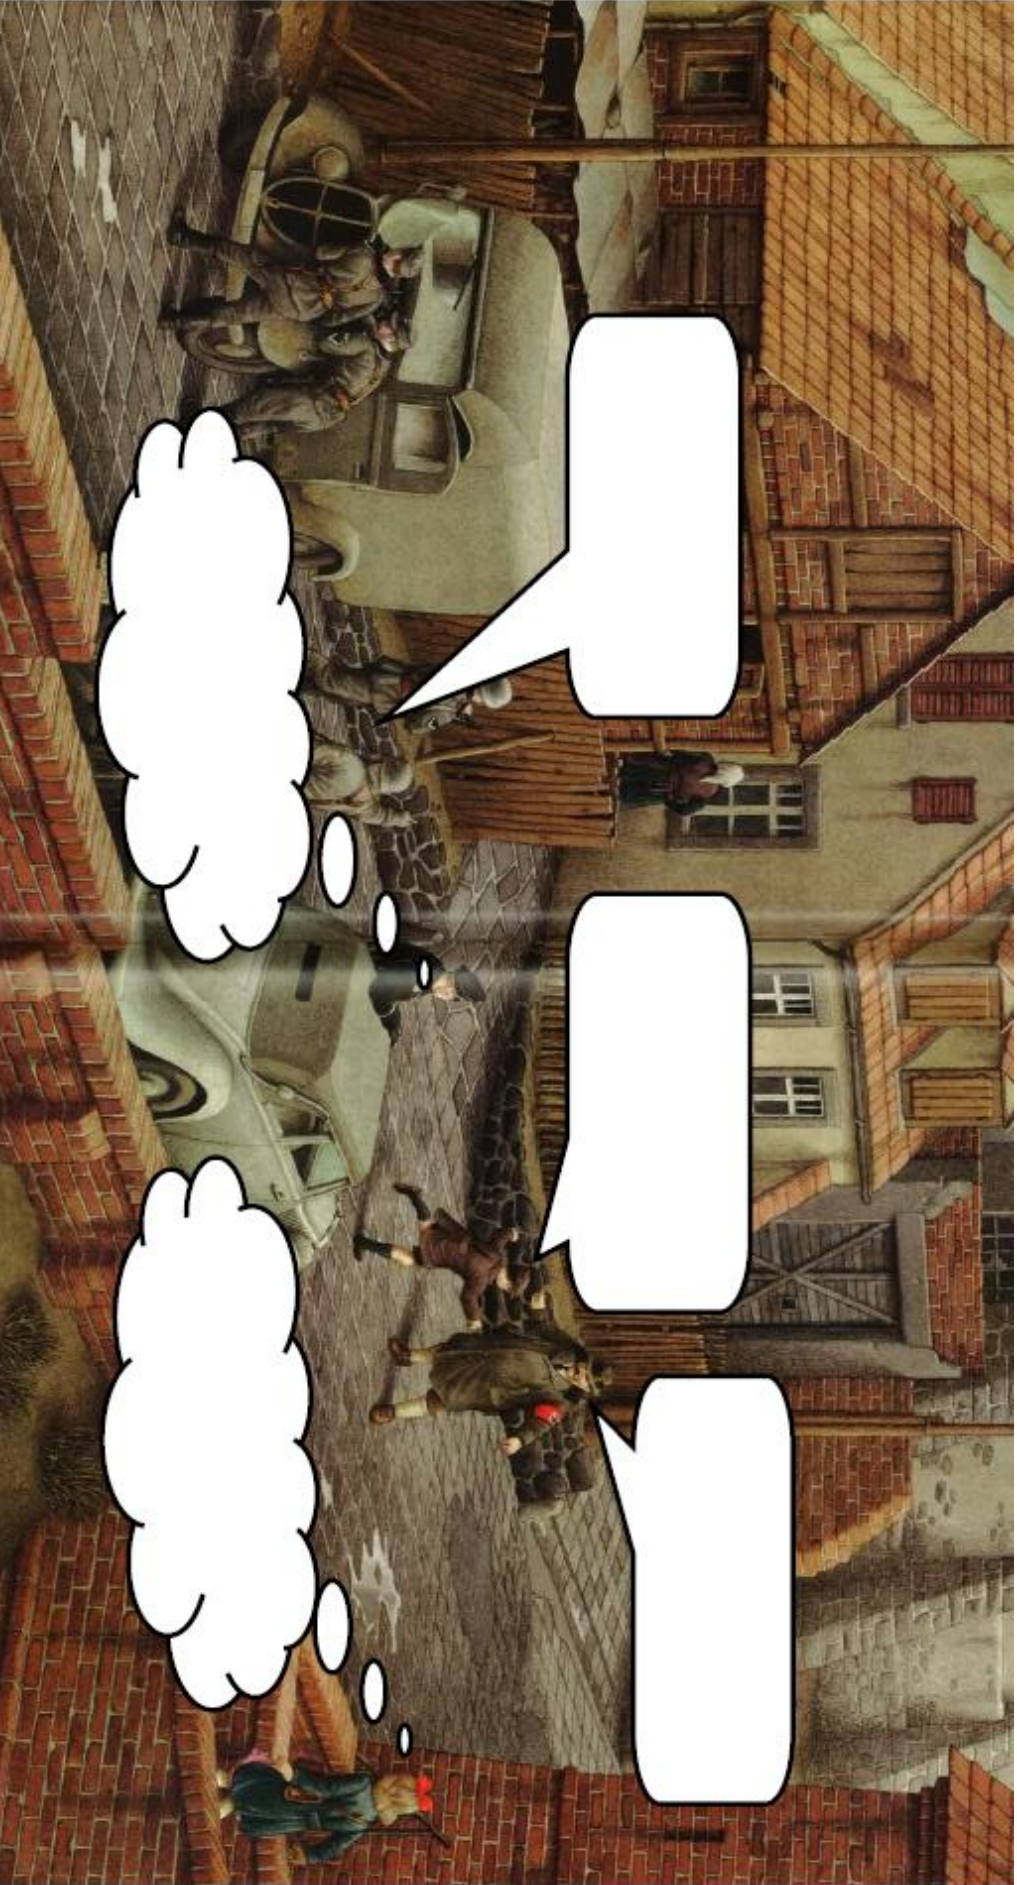

Day 3 – Complete the dialogue and inner thoughts of the characters when the Jewish boy was recaptured.

Day 4 – Plan the story as if it were being told from the perspective of the Jewish boy not Rose (Use the attached planning sheet)

Day 5 – Add description, dialogue, inner thoughts and adverbs/adverbial phrases to your planning sheet

Next week we'll write the story!

Planning sheet

