Text 4 - Letter to the Editor (An extract)

Dear Sir,

I wish to draw your attention to a problem which must be dealt with. As a local citizen and park volunteer, I must urge that the council ban ball games in the park. There are three main reasons why this has to be done.

The first and most important reason is the damage caused by ball games. Our delicate blooms and fragile flowers are squashed and broken every time a large, heavy ball is sent blasting through the flowerbeds. These rough games encourage thoughtless youths to skid and slide across our carefully tended lawns, leaving deep gouges like scars. Perhaps thousands of pounds of damage is caused by this violent pastime. How much more money will be wasted before good sense wins?

My second point refers to the risks to people and animals caused by aggressive ball games. The park is used daily by many families with young children and older people who may be unsteady on their feet. It is clear that balls crossing paths like bullets may cause painful injuries to those innocently passing by. What about our precious wildlife? Our park should be a safe haven for the curious squirrels and thought-provoking tale'*

*'a beguilingly funny, original,

AMANDA CRAIG, CHILDREN'S BOOKS OF THE YEAR

Chloe is just about the loneliest girl in the world. But then she meets Mr Stink, the local tramp. Yes, he smells a bit - but he's the only person who's ever been nice to her. So when Mr Stink needs a place to stay, Chloe decides to hide him in the garden shed!

But Chloe's about to learn that some secrets have a way of leading to disaster. And speaking of secrets, there just might be more to Mr Stink than meets the nose...
