

London

(European Capitals)

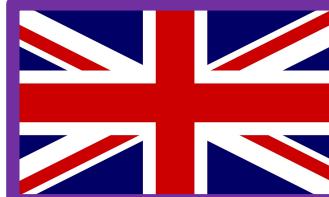

Buckingham Palace

guards

River Thames

London Eye

United Kingdom

underground train station (tube)

Questions:

What are the similarities and differences between European capital cities?

What are the most famous landmarks in each capital city?

Key words

United Kingdom (London)	telephone box	London Eye
Big Ben	Tower of London	Tower Bridge
Germany (Berlin)	Berlin Wall	France (Paris)
Eiffel Tower	Italy (Rome)	The Colosseum
Spain (Madrid)	Royal Palace of Madrid	Greece (Athens)

Facts:

The five most spoken languages in Europe are Russian, English, German, French and Italian.

The first humans appeared in Europe around 35 000 BC. The Greek tribes, as well as the Germanic and Italic people (and the Roman Empire), had a big impact on European language and culture.

